Sec. _____ The authorities conferred by this Title upon the Office of National Drug Control Policy (hereinafter "ONDCP") and its Director shall not be exercised in a manner that is inconsistent with the provisions of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, or that interferes with the authorities of the Director of Central Intelligence or the heads of the other United States intelligence community agencies to conduct intelligence activities, to establish priorities for intelligence collection efforts, to develop a national foreign intelligence budget, and to protect intelligence sources and methods and other information classified for national security purposes. The Director of Central Intelligence and the heads of such agencies shall render full assistance and support to the ONDCP and its Director in the performance of ONDCP functions and shall ensure that ONDCP priorities and requirements are given complete consideration.
